

Camus and Beyond

Literature, Philosophy and the Political

Workshop of the “Irish Centre for Transnational Studies”

26 April 2013

Mary Immaculate College, Limerick

Foundation Building, Go8

09:30-10:00	Introduction and Welcome
10:00-11:15	La pensée comme un caillou: Camus and Sartre on Justice, Stupidity, and Culture Dr. Basil Vassilicos (University of Louvain, Belgium) Chair: Dr. Eugene O’Brien (MIC)
11:15-12:20	Albert Camus between Colony and Metropole Dr. John Strachan (Lancaster University, UK) Chair: Dr. Úna Ní Bhroiméil (MIC)
Lunchbreak
14:00-15:15	‘I rebel — therefore we exist: Camus on Rebellion and Solidarity Dr. Eileen Brennan (St. Patrick’s College, Dublin City University) Chair: Dr Chris Lawn (MIC)
15:30-16.45	Silence, memory and l’homme contesté: Camus’s legacies Dr. Philip Dine (National University of Ireland, Galway) & Dr. Mairéad Ní Bhriain (MIC) Chair: Dr. Loic Guyon (MIC)
17:00-18:00	Round Table Discussion Reading Albert Camus’ “Neither Victims nor Executioners”